SEPTEMBER 2025

Matild Palace welcomes you with a distinctive ambiance representative of its Hungarian heritage which runs beautifully through its core and is unmistakable from the moment you step in through the front doors. Built during the Belle Epoque era in 1902, the palace was developed under the patronage of Her Imperial and Royal Highness Maria Klotild of Saxe Coburg and Gotha to serve as the social hub of Budapest. Today this transformed UNESCO world heritage site offers global explorers regal luxury, a remarkable history, and a new era of gastronomy. Combining luxurious surroundings with authentic experiences, Matild Palace serves as the most spectacular gateway to exploring the magic of Budapest.

ARTS, CULTURE AND LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

BUDAPEST WINE FESTIVAL

Budapest Wine Festival, a true celebration of wine culture, elegance, and gastronomy for over three decades. Within the historic walls of the Buda Castle, the festival offers a unique atmosphere, a powerful sense of community, and an unforgettable meeting of past and present for every wine enthusiast. Say farewell to summer in style between September 11 and 14 with fine wines, breathtaking Danube sunsets, great company, and a rich blend of flavors.

FOLK FASHION EXHIBITION

Folk Fashion exhibition invites visitors to discover the unique and timeless relationship between Hungarian folk art and fashion. It showcases how the forms and motifs of popular culture have inspired the work of fashion designers from the early 20th century to today.

MŰCSARNOK/KUNSTHALLE

A striking change in contemporary art over the past five years is that even works created using traditional methods can no longer remain unaffected by the digital cosmos, which is racing at wind speed. This year's National Salon of Fine Arts seeks to reflect the richness of personal responses to society's shifts and, in doing so, to illustrate the infiltration of the emerging virtual world into traditional artistic thinking.
